

Youth Worker Cafe

Please join us! You are welcome to invite others who are interested!

WHEN: Tuesday, February 28, 2012
11:30 am – 1:00 pm

WHO: All youth workers, parents, community leaders, youth ministers, educators, counselors, and others working to impact the well-being of local youth.

SPEAKER/ TOPIC: Adam Shoemaker, AmeriCorps VISTA, Evaluation, Indiana Youth Institute

What difference has your program made in the lives of those you serve? Attend this Youth Worker Café to learn about the importance of program evaluation in measuring success. Help your organization prepare to implement evaluation in an effort to increase your overall effectiveness.

This luncheon will share how evaluation can help you:

- Identify a program's overall impact
- Use data to show program success to funders
- Better tell your story and talk about your successes
- Learn how IYI can help you solidify your evaluation practices

WHERE: Indiana Avenue Christian Church
1501 Thomas V. Bryant Drive (formerly Locust Street)
Jeffersonville, IN 47130

COST: Free: Lunch will be provided, courtesy of the Indiana Youth Institute

Youth Worker Cafés are meetings that bring together local youth workers, faith-based leaders, educators, and community leaders to build relationships and inspire collaborations that help kids. We also strive to provide educational opportunities through guest presentations at most sessions. For information about other Indiana Youth Institute services and resources, contact IYI's Southeast Field Staff Representative Michelle Sanchez, msanchez@iyi.org or call 800-495-3219.
